However, I installed Dfine on my Lumia device, and was missing the app itself, but the filter works great, the sound and interface are super easy to navigate, and I love that it allows me to preview before I apply it. All in all I would give it 5 stars if the app itself was included on the device. I may have to uninstall the app from the phone in order to access the filter if I can't find a way to allow it on the phone to be used and not disappear.
