By the time the shelves and museum stores are cleared up of Father Christmas, every child who comes of age will have to face the prospect that reindeer, Santas, or even Krampus have outlived their day. Those who flee the parental house to find their own summer camp should therefore feel confident of at least another few years as members of what is known, for now, as Generation Great, which also includes David Beckham and the Beckhams. But the kids need to be able to count, at least, and they may not be able to do that for much longer. As soon as they can put together a shopping list, it won't be long before they get the terrifying news that one of the big five supermarkets has launched a new line of Christmas chocolate that doesn't feature any Christmas presents. The new bars are wrapped in the same style as normal chocolate, but have on them a Christmas tree, a present, and a
