Acute Softwares Diary [Updated]

Record your daily tasks or meetings, share them with your family and friends, set reminders, and collaborate with your colleagues, all within one application. There are five aspects that lets you record information in this diary:

- Calendar: Calendar tool with time zone selection and ability to open up to 12 months for a simple use. You can also set a reminder based on the date selected in the calendar.
- Tasks: A tool for creating tasks and appointments. They will be displayed in a visually clear and simple way in both Daily and Weekly view. • Notes: Supports a rich note editor allowing you to keep notes for each appointment or task.

- Sorting: Sorting of tasks and notes, using a drag-and-drop tool so that tasks and notes are sorted automatically based on the selected type and grouped by date, as well as a custom sorting type.
- Sharing:

Share information through email, task sharing, and social sharing buttons for fast communication. Data export: All the information is fully exportable to Microsoft outlook, Google Calendar, and Apple's calendar. Software subject to license (u s.macosx.proprietary.softwar e).
